

INVITATION

Dear Colleagues,

Cancer congress is a regular event of Pakistan Society of Clinical Oncology and is held in different cities. This year, 21st Cancer Congress ONCO 2017 is being held in Faisalabad.

The Oncology Department, Punjab Medical College Faisalabad, Punjab Institute of Nuclear Medicine Faisalabad, Oncology Department and Sargodha Medical College will convene the 21st Cancer Congress under the auspices of Pakistan Society of Clinical Oncology. 21st Cancer Congress ONCO 2017 will continue the longstanding tradition that has seen the conference established as the premier oncology conference in Pakistan. This year's conference will explore the theme: "CANCER PREVENTION TO CURE" by bringing together national and international experts from different disciplines at Faisalabad, city built in 1896, known as Manchester of Pakistan.

At national level, the Pakistan Society of Clinical Oncology has taken a lead in promoting awareness about cancer, educating the health professionals and care takers, creating harmony amongst different specialties, initiating national tumor registry program, innovating local solutions to the problems, and providing standard care to the cancer patients. The conference will be a significant milestone in an endeavor towards achieving this mission.

On behalf of the organizers of the congress and Pakistan Society of Clinical Oncology, it is my privilege and great pleasure to invite you to join us at the 21st Cancer Congress ONCO 2017 which will be held on March 31 - April 02, 2017 in Faisalabad. The congress is jointly organized by the Oncology Department Punjab Medical College Faisalabad, Punjab Institute of Nuclear Medicine Faisalabad and Oncology Department, Sargodha Medical College with the patronage of Pakistan Society of Clinical Oncology.

Our keynote speakers, invited speakers and panelists will bring a wealth of expertise, innovation, inter-professional learning and research. As in previous years we present a blended program of talks, workshops and discussion forums & satellite symposia. The Conference committee is working hard to make best arrangements for the delegates as well as devising a very interactive scientific program to make the event a memorable one.

We hope that you will join us for this interesting and fruitful event and exchange your valuable ideas and experience.

Warm Regards,
Dr. Muhammad Khalid
Chairman Organizing Committee
